ABOUT EPBF

The European Paintball Federation - EPBF - is an international federation, governing Paintball sport in Europe. EPBF is an international association, uniting all national paintball federations of Europe.

The aims of EPBF are as follows:

- To promote the development of the sport of Paintball around Europe. To this end, EPBF must contact all official organizations and individuals susceptible to contribute to this effort, at the technical, administrative and financial levels.
- To stimulate relations and bonds of friendship and support the peaceful coexistence between the National Federations and its members, while respecting the interests of all.
- To establish and promote the international Paintball regulations adopted by EPBF.
- To regulate Paintball, as practiced by all its affiliated federations or associations, and ensure that Paintball regulations are adhered to at European championships, Millennium series, European competitions which, without exception, are held under its control.
- To select, train, improve and oversee the activities of judges and referees, as well as that of technical and administrative personnel.
- To represent Paintball and defend its interests at the levels of the National Olympic Committees, the International Olympic Committee and the other international sports organizations.
- To take an impartial decision in case of dispute or differences of opinion occurring between affiliated nations during the practice of Paintball.
- To prohibit itself from taking part, and declare itself opposed to any debate or any political, racial or religious discrimination.
- To help National Paintball Federations to be recognized by their National Olympic Committees and seek the recognition of EPBF by the International Olympic Committee.
- To disseminate information on EPBF activities.
- To maintain contact and cooperation with UPBF and the confederations recognized by UPBF.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP U19 2013

The U19 competition was this year held at the first event of the Millennium Series 2013 season, in April, in Puget, France. Being earlier in the calendar than previous years, it attracted less teams than in the past as team Coaches were unable to train the National teams in time for the first event.

However, this did not stop the young men in their desire to take part in the Championship and to prove to everyone that they are a reliable replacement! It is always great to see the young players on the field, it means that paintball spirit is not going to die, the youths will keep it burning!

Norway, Great Britain, France, Germany and Russia were all represented by their National Youth teams. Youths were fighting for the right to become the best of the best among the young players under 19 years old, for the right to be called a CHAMPION!

They may not be as experienced as the elders are, but their hearts were filled with fire, desire to win, the desire to be the best, the desire to play and to play as top-level players. The spectators fueled the fire even more with their cheering, national flags waving, signing of anthems and constant support during all the Championship's games!

This time Great Britain had to defend their Champions title from last year, and they were playing hard. Their games were great.....but the Norwegians were better! So we have the new Champion – Norwegian U19 team. British Youths came 2nd, but they rightly were not too disappointed with this placing. Next year they will have a chance to prove again that they are the best of the best!

This was a triumph for Norway! They were playing fantastic by acting on the field as an experienced team! That was also a great job of their coach!

Our special thanks go to Euroref guys, which were working hard on the field.

We say thank you to the SPECTATORS, because the National teams would not be so good without them.

Also we would like to thank to all who helped us to organise the European U19 Championship; The Millennium Series and all the National Federations involved in the organisation.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP WOMEN'S 2013

Not many National Federations can boast of having a Women's National team. Unfortunately, paintball is mostly a mans sport, and very few women dare to enter paintball. But what a joy for men it must be, to see women playing paintball! Women teams usually attract the biggest amount of spectators in the stands, so they receive the biggest support from men, and imagine what happens in the grandstands during the Women's Championship? The crowded grandstands are struggling with the weight of all the supporters!

This year 7 National Federations were lucky to represent the Women's National team for the European Championship, those were France, Russia, Great Britain, Poland, Germany, Norway and Netherlands!

As last year, the grandstands were full of spectators till the last game, they were cheering each team coming on the field, enjoying the games and they were showering winners with screams and applause! Because of the women playing, spectators were very excited, men's teams don't receive so much support. As last year, spectators were enjoying every victory and worrying about every defeat.

Despite their hard work and tough games, Francy failed to keep the title of the Champion from last year. They did not even manage to get 2nd. But they are eager to take revenge next year!

Once more we should congratulate Russia who took 2nd place, same position as last year. Their Coach Sergey Samuylov ensures that tough training and hard work will help them to get first next year!

Norway must be very proud of their Women's team now, because they are the Champions! They beat both France and Russia and no one expected them to get first place but themselves. So we congratulate them one more time!

We are grateful to all the participants: to the Millennium Series for the support provided for the European Champ Women organisation; to National Teams and also all the National Federations involved in the organisation; to Euroref guys for their hard referee work; and those, who helped to produce the very best paintball atmosphere ever - THE SPECTATORS!

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP MAN'S 2013

This year the European Championship was covered on the MSTV webcast, meaning many people, who did not manage to get to Basildon, had a chance to see everything on the Internet. However, even the best live media coverage couldn't stop the Paintball spirit! Only sitting in the grandstands gives you the chance to touch the real paintball show, to feel our sports energy, and to plunge into the great atmosphere! Plenty of paintball fans were in the grandstands to support the national teams, to inspire them to win by cheering, waving national flags and singing the national anthems.

With 3 preliminary games, teams had a better chance to get to the quarter-finals, and the spectators had more opportunities to support their national teams. The crowds in the stands greeted the teams every time they were on field, they followed by cheers at every significant game moment by congratulating the winner.

Group leaders were defined following the several preliminary games; Russia, Great Britain, France and Germany. Their squads were amplified by players from the top Millennium CPL teams like Art Chaos and Polar Bears, London Nexus, Toulouse TonTons and Frankfurt Syndicate. Despite the strong rivals and hard games, National teams from Latvia, Austria, Ukraine and Norway also did enough to get to the quarter-finals.

Now the final eight had to fight for the semi-finals in the decisive games. For the second four it was a chance to knock out the top four. But a miracle did not happen, and the final four was the same as last year: Russia, Great Britain, France and Germany.

The fast and magnificent game between Russia and Great Britain was for 1st place. Britain were geared up to regain the title of Champions, honored in 2011, but the Russians, the Champions of 2012, were stronger. So Russia has confirmed the title of Champion in 2013. Will they be able to keep this title for 2014 as well? We will see.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP MAN'S 2013

Russian and Gr Britain National teams (1st and 2nd places)

Dmitry Berdnikov (Russia)

Russian National team Coach, Dmitry Berdnikov, legendary player from Russia, helped to lead his team to first place! Once more, the Russians have proved that their paintball school is the best in Europe!

Like always, we would like to congratulate all the participants, the National Teams and all the National Federations that were involved in the organisation.

Also, we are grateful to the Euroref guys, which were enforcing the Rules and the Fair play on the field during the Championship. Great work, guys!

And our thanks must go also go to the spectators, who stayed in the stands and supported the teams until the very last shot!

Special thanks also to the Millennium Series for the support provided for the European Championship organisation.

And one more thanks to Ricardo Campos (Portugal) for the great pictures!

WORLD CUP 2013

It was the time everyone's been waiting for!
THE event of the year - the first official Paintball World Cup 2013 at Paris-Chantilly!
We choose the most beautiful place for such important event - Chantilly.

During 13-15 September 24 teams were descend on the venue to compete in the most popular format (race-to-4) for the most important paintball trophy – the World CUP!
We had a chance to see on the field National Teams from USA, Canada, South Africa, Malaysia, Iran, Mexico, Russia, Germany, France, Sweden, Norway ... and many others from all over the world!

During the Opening Ceremony Parade all the National Teams were walking by the grandstands in front of the spectators in their national jerseys, holding national flags and listening the greetings of the spectators!

WORLD CUP 2013

Here are some Features teams were able to use during the World Cup:

- The World Cup games were controlled by referees from the strongest Referees organisation in Europe – Eurorefs!
- Paint from top manufacturers, stored in temperature controlled containers, was available on site.
- The largest tradeshow in European Paintball, featuring the latest and greatest products from all the favourite companies.
- Live webcast! Everyone was able to watch the World Cup games live from the comfort of their own home. We brought all the action from the best teams in the world competing on the CPL field. With several different cameras covering the field, people didn't miss a moment!

This World Cup was THE event of the year for competitors, spectators, vendors, and everyone involved in the sport of paintball!

Special thanks also to the Millennium Series for the support provided for the GREAT organisation.

And one more thanks to Ole Krueger (Germany) for the GREAT pictures!
